THOMAS FRANCIS MEAGHER COAT OF ARMS DESIGN COMPETITION

Thomas Francis Meagher was a famous Waterford man who flew the Irish tricolour flag for the first time 176 years ago from the Wolfe Tone Club in Waterford City on the 7th of March 1848. Thomas Francis Meagher fought for freedom and equality for all people, which is still as important today!

Design a coat of arms to hang outside 33 The Mall that will commemorate Thomas Francis Meagher and the Irish tricolour. Return your entry to any of the libraries in the city or county (https://waterfordlibraries.ie/) by 31/03/2024 to be in with a chance to win a voucher for the Book Centre.
